

REGIONAL INSTRUCTIONAL TECHNOLOGY SPECIALISTS

Instructional Technology Specialists

Technology Specialists with strong technical skills and curriculum expertise staff South Carolina's Regional Technology Centers. Each center has a multi-station, networked computer lab to provide professional development opportunities and technology support for the educators in the districts served by the center. Services offered include consultations for lessons and class projects, customized course design, mini-courses, workshops, Teacher Training Institutes, online instructional and administrative training, graduate, and recertification courses.
