

Other Publications Related to ITV Resources

Instructional Television offers the following print and electronic materials to provide information and services to public schools:

- ITV Home Page (www.itv.myetv.org): Schedule information in this book may change. You are advised to regularly check our Web site for up-to-the-minute schedule information.
- ITV Update: This publication provides updates on schedules of existing series or use rights, new series or programs that become available, special activities, holiday viewing, staff development resources, and monthly block feed schedules. It is mailed to schools at the beginning of each month. The ITV Update is posted on the Web site by the 25th of each month prior to delivery to schools via mail.
- Instructional Television Handbook: This guide provides a handy checklist of suggested services to assist media specialists in the use of instructional television. Check our Web site (www.itv.myetv.org) to view or print this resource.
- Teacher and Student Lesson Guides: Designed for the utilization of ITV series, these guides and student worksheets are provided either in master copy or in quantity. Many guides are also available electronically from our Web site at www.itv.myetv.org. The Teachers' Guide order form is on our Web site. Guides for many series indicated with an SL are also available through StreamlineSC: www.etv.streamlinesc.org.

Resource Schedule Format

Most series will ONLY be available via block feeds. We are discontinuing the weekly feeds with the exception of programs such as South Carolina: In the News. Printed below is an explanation of the format used for the few ITV resources listed in this publication that are NOT block fed.

Lesson Title: This is the lesson title of each lesson in the series. Occasionally, titles must be abbreviated for space considerations.

Day of the Week: This indicates the day or days of the week that the program is broadcast. Th is used for Thursday. In this example, the program is broadcast each Tuesday and Thursday.

Channel Number: These are digital satellite channels. See the note about closed-circuit channel numbers on the inside front cover for more information. Only ETV READY TO LEARN programming and a few instructional series are broadcast on open-circuit.

Time: Broadcast start time of each lesson.

Catalog Number: This number is used in our computer scheduling system to locate tapes. When requesting information about a program, this is the safest way to refer to a program.

Broadcast Date: This column contains the date that each lesson is broadcast. Repetitive month names are omitted. In this example, Lesson 10 will be broadcast on Oct. 10 at 8:30 am on satellite channel 317.

Program Length: This column gives the length of the lesson in minutes and seconds.
