

Partnership Training in Law Enforcement and Education

(Designed for teachers of grades 6-12)

Course Synopsis

Register online: www.itv.scetv.org

Cost: $150.00 per participant

Recertification: Three Hours or 60 Renewal Credits

Registration Deadline: September 22

Course Dates: September 26, 2009 – January 18, 2010

This course designed by the South Carolina Department of Public Safety Criminal Justice Academy, the South Carolina Department of Education, and produced by SCETV, is for three hours recertification credit for teachers in grades six through twelve. It is intended for a group of three or more teachers at a school site, the SRO and selected administrators. This three-hour recertification course is designed for a learning team of middle and/or high school teachers, administrators, and school resource officer. The school resource officer must be a key participant in the learning team. The twenty-two video lessons feature key health, education and law enforcement professionals. Lesson topics include: child abuse, bullies to gangs, date rape, peer mediation, substance abuse, and search and seizure. One set of videotapes of the broadcast lessons will be provided but must be returned upon completion of the course. The course emphasizes the importance of the role and responsibilities of the SRO, working in tandem with teachers and administrators, in the school setting and community. School Resource Officers receive credit for their participation through the Criminal Justice Academy.

Each adult learning team (ALT) will gain knowledge from key professionals in law enforcement, education, and the medical field. Lesson topics include: child abuse, bullies to gangs, date rape, peer mediation, substance abuse, and search and seizure.

Form your team of teachers, administrators (optional) and SRO!

I. COMPONENTS

This course is composed of three major components.

1. 22 video lessons, each of which is approximately 45-55 minutes in duration
2. A lesson guide that contains course outlines and assignments for each lesson.
3. A Resource Packet for oral summary reports. (1 packet per team to keep in school as resource.)

Course requires each participant to:

1. View the videos, complete video rating sheets individually and individual assignments.
2. Work as a team to complete group reports due for meetings two through eight.
3. Discuss assignments, share experiences at meetings and complete group reflection sheets.
4. Complete final course evaluation.
5. Turn in all assignments at the end of the course in individual portfolios and group portfolios according to directions provided in the lesson guide.

II. VIDEOS

There are 22 video lessons for the course. One set of DVDs of the lessons will be provided to each team. These DVDs must be returned upon completion of the course in order to receive recertification credit. Teams may view lessons together or each member may view individually. Teams can make copies if individual viewing is preferred. (DVDs are only for educational use by S.C. schools.)

III. TEAM MEETINGS (In addition to Columbia meeting for one team member.)

Eight meetings are required to share guided study notes, to discuss topics from lessons, complete individual video rating sheets, complete group reports and to share oral resource summaries. ALT determines date/time/ place of meeting.

1. Meeting 1 - should occur prior to viewing the series to distribute materials, plan viewing as team or individually and plan other meetings
2. Meeting 2 - after viewing through Lesson 3
3. Meeting 3 – after viewing through Lesson 7
4. Meeting 4 – after viewing through Lesson 12
5. Meeting 5 – after viewing through Lesson 16
6. Meeting 6 – after viewing through Lesson 19
7. Meeting 7 – after viewing through Lesson 22
8. Meeting 8 - schedule at the end of the course to complete and turn in the final project

IV. ALT Member Roles

Each ALT should select a facilitator, secretary, and a video handler. Rotate roles if there are more than three members in ALT or divide responsibilities as desired. Assign one team member to attend a required meeting at ETV Telecommunications Center, 1041 George Rogers Blvd., Columbia, on Saturday, September 26 at 1:00 p.m. to receive specific information on the course and to pick up all materials for the team. The meeting will last one hour.

V. Team Effort

Each ALT should meet after viewing video lessons for discussion of videos, assignments, and to share experiences. The secretary at each meeting should complete a group reflection sheet for the team and keep all group reports to be turned in at the end of the course.

VI. BETWEEN MEETINGS

1. View video lessons, fill in guided study notes and complete video rating sheets.
2. Complete individual assignments.
3. Read your assignments for next group meeting. Use your guided study notes in preparation for group discussion and group reports.

NOTE: Be sure to view all lessons that are scheduled before each team meeting.

VII. FINAL MEETING

At the last meeting each team member should turn in his/her portfolio, which includes individual assignments, video rating sheets and a short report describing his/her contribution to the final project. The ALT secretary will turn in the oral resource summary form, group project reports, group reflection sheets, final course evaluation forms (one form per class member), attendance record sheet, and the final group project - plus disk, if possible. All materials must be postmarked by January 18 and returned to Instructional Television.
